ORDER

GREGORY H. WOODS, United States District Judge:

The Court has received Plaintiff's January 23, 2022 letter. Dkt. No. 95. The Court is not recusing itself from this matter.

The Court has ordered Plaintiff to comply with her discovery obligations. During the status conference on January 11, 2022, the Court discussed at length the nature of Plaintiff's discovery obligations. Rather than granting Defendants' motion for sanctions as a result of Plaintiff's continued non-compliance with her discovery obligations, the Court granted Plaintiff additional time to comply. Plaintiff is directed to the Court's recent orders, attached here, describing Plaintiff's discovery obligations. Failure to comply with discovery obligations can result in the imposition of sanctions. Plaintiff is further reminded that she has until January 28, 2022 to reply to Defendants' interrogatories and respond fully to all outstanding document requests. The Court did not order Plaintiff to provide HIPAA releases.

Defendants are instructed to send a copy of this order to Plaintiff by email.

The Clerk of Court is directed to mail a copy of this order by first class mail to Plaintiff.

SO ORDERED.

ORDER

GREGORY H. WOODS, United States District Judge:

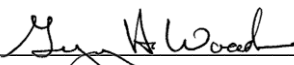

The Court has received Plaintiff's January 19, 2022 letter. Dkt. No. 93. On January 11, 2022, the Court held a status conference to discuss the parties' discovery disputes and defendant's anticipated motion for sanctions. On January 12, 2021, the Court issued an Order, attached here, requiring that Plaintiff provide full responses to Defendant's document requests and interrogatories. Dkt. No. 92. Plaintiff was ordered to reply to Defendants' interrogatories and respond fully to all outstanding document requests by January 28, 2022. The Court did not order Plaintiff to provide HIPAA releases.

Defendants are instructed to send a copy of this order to Plaintiff by email.

The Clerk of Court is directed to mail a copy of this order by first class mail to Plaintiff.

SO ORDERED.

ORDER

GREGORY H. WOODS, United States District Judge:

On January 11, 2022, the Court held a status conference to discuss the parties' discovery disputes and defendant's anticipated motion for sanctions.

For the reasons described by the Court during that conference, Plaintiff is ordered to reply to Defendants' interrogatories and respond fully to all outstanding document requests by January 28, 2022. This is the second time the Court is ordering Plaintiff to provide complete and accurate responses to Defendants' interrogatories. The Court also ordered Plaintiff to do so on October 25, 2021. Dkt. No. 82. Plaintiff must provide complete and specific responses to all of Defendants' questions in the interrogatories. Plaintiff must provide a written response to each question even if Plaintiff believes that the information requested is available in other documents or has already been provided to Defendants. Plaintiff is directed to provide a written response and not to reference or excerpt other documents.

According to the Case Management Plan entered by the Court on July 6, 2021, fact discovery closed on December 3, 2021. Dkt. No. 62. However, because Plaintiff has failed to respond to Defendant's discovery requests, the Court finds that there is good cause to extend the fact discovery deadline for the limited purpose of permitting Defendants to take Plaintiff's deposition. The Court also finds that there is good cause to extend the fact discovery deadline to allow Plaintiff to provide Defendants with discovery already requested.

However, the Court is not extending the fact discovery deadline for any other purpose. At this point, there is no showing of good cause for any other extension of the fact discovery deadline. If the parties intend to conduct other depositions in this case, or seek new or additional documents, they are directed to request an extension of the fact discovery deadline and provide the Court with a justification to do so. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 16(b)(4) (“A schedule may be modified only for good cause and with the judge’s consent.”). The parties are also directed to comply with Rule 1(E) of my Individual Rules of Practice in Civil Cases if they intend to request an extension of the fact discovery deadlines. As discussed during the conference, the Court directs the parties to meet and confer about depositions in this case.

Defendants are instructed to send a copy of this order along with a copy of the transcript from the January 11, 2022 status conference to Plaintiff by email.

The Clerk of Court is directed to mail a copy of this order by first class mail to Plaintiff.

SO ORDERED.
